Little Stories of Daily Life

Telling the Folks.

The other day a rookie, just out of college, married a girl who lived in the town where his company was in training. The young man knew he must inform his family back home in Indiana of the event, and also that he must do it in the most soothing way possible. "Dear dad," he wrote, "I always thought that when I married I would choose a girl who could support herself if necessary, and then if anything would ever happen to me, you wouldn't have to be burdened with her. Now, Marion is that kind of a girl. She knows all about my financial condition and—"

But when father read the letter, he paused here to reread it. "Financial condition," he snorted. "That young cub hasn't any financial condition. Why, he doesn't own the clothes on his back. No dad he ever own them. Financial condition—well, I'll be hanged." Another rookie had likewise married a girl who was a stranger to his mother, who boasts of her Irish descent. He, too, wrote home a letter to mother. "I have told Frances all about my family, so that now she feels that she really knows you. So I'm going to tell you all about her. She is now an orphan, but when her father was alive he was a big railroad man."

Here mother commented to the rest of the family. "Don't be excited by that," she advised them. "Your father and I used to know a very fat freeman."

Of Course Not.

Elizabeth had been buying Thrift stamps and almost had her third book filled before the drive for War Savings pledges. Her mother suggested that she had better not start another book until the campaign was on.

"Mother," replied Elizabeth, "do you think our dear soldiers over in France would say 'I have fought three battles and I can't fight any more'?"

WOUNDED IN BATTLE IN FRANCE

Word has been received in Indianapolis that Lieutenant J. Burdette Little has been wounded in France. The cablegram from Lieutenant Little, which was received by Mrs. J. Burdette Little, 215 Broadway, said that Lieutenant Little had suffered a slight leg wound and that he was in excellent condition. He is at base hospital No. 23.

Mrs. Little is of the opinion that her husband has been in the fighting around Metz. She bases her conclusion on previous communications she has received from overseas.

Lieutenant Little was in the second training camp at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, and after receiving his commission he was assigned to Camp Funston. He was stationed in England several months. He has been in France since June 1.

When he entered the military training camp Mr. Little was practicing law in Indianapolis. He had been a member of Indianapolis sixteen years, having come here from Hamilton county. He is a member of a number of clubs and other organizations in the city.

J. McMillan and J. L. Slager, both of Indianapolis, are listed as wounded in today's Canadian casualty list. McMillan's name is not in the city directory and efforts to find relatives were not successful. Slager was reported in previous list.

LIEUT. J. BURDETTE LITTLE.

GERMAN ALIEN WOMEN WARNED

Women and girls registered as German alien and employed at downtown stores in Indianapolis within a half mile of the Metropole hotel barracks will be arrested and detained in jail if they attempt to go about their work after October 5 without having obtained permits to enter the restricted zones, Mark Storen, United States marshal, has announced.

Instructions for the issuance of the zone permits to alien women were received by Mr. Storen from the department of justice at Washington and he was told to enforce the orders rigidly.

The order applies to alien women and girls who live within the restricted areas as well as those employed within the zones. It is necessary for a woman or girl employed in the zones to have an application signed by a responsible American citizen. The barred zones include all territory within a half-mile radius of any army post or barracks.

"Sufficient notice will have been given the permit question through the press by October 5, that no excuses will be accepted from any German woman or girl over fourteen years old found in any restricted area without a permit after that date," Mr. Storen said. "Such action on the part of any German woman will be considered as disregard of the President's proclamation and the laws of the United States and she will be summarily arrested and detained."

Application blanks for the permits to enter the barred zones are available at the marshal's office, Room 340, federal building. Mr. Storen said, and women are advised to obtain the applications at once to have sufficient time for the issuance of the permits by the date on which the order becomes effective. Applicants must have two photographs of themselves, the pictures being on thin paper, three inches square and showing the applicant's head and shoulders. Every courtesy will be extended those making application, the marshal said.

DUTY AND A PRIVILEGE.

"Every citizen should always salute the flag," said Mayor Charles W. Jewett tonight. "This mark of reverence and respect is not only a duty but a privilege. No flag in all the world represents so much to its citizenship as the Star-Spangled Banner. Soldiers in uniform promptly stand at attention and salute as the flag goes by. How much more promptly should the citizen do his hat to the flag when it means that the boy in the uniform of the flag is his greatest protect and security and safeguard of freedom. It is a rare privilege to be an American today. Let us show that we appreciate our Americanism by baring our heads to the beautiful emblem of our country."

MEN TO SERVE WITH WOMEN COLONELS

tenant-colonels on the staffs of fourteen of the fifteen women colonels who will direct the drive for funds in the campaign to start September 28. The only woman lieutenant-colonel is Mrs. F. S. Kautz, who is attached to the staff of Colonel Mrs. Elijah Jordan, of Sector 18.

Mrs. Kealing also has appointed on her staff Harry Yockey and Mrs. Edna K. Martin as brigadier-generals. T. Neil Wynn has been assigned as lieutenant-colonel under Colonel Mrs. Charles F. Riddell, Sector 12, to serve with Robert H. Bryson. Each sector will have independent headquarters with a colonel in charge.
